

Finance Leadership Program Content Updates

The mission of the CGMA qualification is to prepare future finance professionals to be skilled, critical thinkers and effective business partners for a dynamic workplace. To achieve this, the CGMA Finance Leadership Program (FLP) undergoes regular updates and improvements.

Please see below for more information on the updates going into effect.

Effective 2 April 2025

Strategic Level

- Strategic Management subject area
 - Updates to all topics within the following competency areas: Competitive Advantage, Strategy Formulation and Strategy Implementation

Effective 15 December 2025

Strategic Level

- Risk Management subject area
 - Updates to all learning topics in all 4 competency areas
- Financial Strategy subject area
 - Updates to all learning topics in all 4 competency areas
- Strategic Management subject area
 - Competitive Advantage competency area – learning topics External environment analysis – Understanding the ecosystem and Competitor Analysis have been updated.
 - Updates to all learning topics in the Digital Strategy competency area

Operational Level

- Management Accounting subject area
 - Budgeting and Planning competency area - learning topic Improving the Budgeting Process has been updated.
- Digital Finance subject area
 - Finance Business Partnering competency area - learning topic Influential Finance Business Partnering Function is new to the program.

- Finance Function Transformation competency area – learning topics Key Technologies Driving Business and Finance and Leveraging Technology in the Finance Function have been updated.